What is Fuel for Schools

Fuel for Schools is a brand new sponsorship programme that provides all Primary, Intermediate and Secondary Schools throughout New Zealand with an exciting new way to raise additional funds.

Who is operating Fuel for Schools?

The Fuel for Schools programme is operated by Southfuels in the South Island and Northfuels in the North Island.

How much money is this going to cost me?

Nothing - Fuel for Schools is designed to channel support back to the children in rural communities that we are involved in. The programme is 100% funded from our promotions budget. We can't think of a better way to say thanks to our rural customers!

How much money can a school make being part of Fuel for Schools?

The school receives 1 cent per 2 litres of bulk fuel that is delivered by SouthFuels or Northfuels to the bulk fuel user. (supporter)

Is there a limit on the amount of sponsorship that the school can receive?

No. The more fuel used, the more money the school makes.

How many schools can a bulk fuel user nominate?

A supporter can nominate one school only.

How does the school actually get paid?

We will issue a cheque on a quarterly basis to the school.
