Linda Brown - Linda Brown Contracting

southfuels
FUEL AND LUBRICANT SPECIALISTS

What is your current operation?

A dairy support farm and contracting business.

Have you always been a farmer and contractor?

Farming has always been in my blood. I have done other roles such as office work but always had a hand in the family farm.

If you could start over would you still be in farming?

Yes.

How different do you run your business now compared to when you first started?

I have scaled the operation back to be more efficient and customer focused.

What words of advice would you offer a young person entering your industry today?

Know your customer and their needs.

What do you like about Southfuels?

Friendly people, a good price and good service.
